Disclaimer

The University of Puerto Rico (“UPR” or the “University”), the Government of Puerto Rico, its instrumentalities and agencies (the “Government”), and each of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, advisors, members, partners or affiliates make no representation of warranty, express or implied, to any third party with respect to the information contained herein and all Parties expressly disclaim any such representations of warranties that may be inferred by the reader of this document.

Within the process of developing this document, the UPR has had to rely upon preliminary information for 2020 and 2021, yet its formulation has been coupled and reinforced with audited financials for 2017, 2018 and 2019. As such, UPR has made certain assumptions that may materially change. The Parties do not owe or accept any duty or responsibility to any reader or recipient of this presentation, whether in contract or tort, and shall not be liable for or in respect of any loss, damage (including without limitation consequential damages or lost profits) or expense of whatsoever nature of such third party that may be caused by, or alleged to be caused by, the use of this presentation or that is otherwise consequent upon the gaining of access to this document by such third party.

The Parties do not undertake any duty to update the information contained herein. This document does not constitute an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, an examination of internal controls or other attestation or review services in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“AICPA”) or any other organization. Accordingly, the Parties do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on the financial statements or any financial or other information or the internal controls of the UPR and the information contained herein. Any statements and assumptions contained in this document, whether forward-looking or historical, are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties, estimates, and other assumptions made in this document. The economic and financial condition of the UPR is affected by various legal, financial, social, economic, environmental, governmental, and political factors.

These factors can be very complex, may vary from one fiscal year to the next and are frequently the result of actions taken or omission of action thereof, not only by the UPR, but also by Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico and other third-party entities, such as the Government of the United States.

Executive Summary: Committed to the Sustainability of the UPR

This is the 6th fiscal plan that the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (“FOMB”) has required the University of Puerto Rico (“UPR”, and/or the “University”) to prepare since the enactment of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”). This revision is by far the most complex due to the high level of social and economic uncertainty caused by the unprecedented challenge resulting from the outbreak of a respiratory illness caused by the COVID-19 Pandemic.

- The UPR Fiscal Plan for 2021 is Committed towards PROMESA compliance, fiscal and financial responsibility, and providing a long-term path towards the Sustainability of the UPR.
- From FY’17 to FY’21, the University’s Government Appropriations have been reduced by an accumulated $333 million, or 40%. In order to mitigate the budget reduction, the University is implementing fiscal controls and revenue generating measures.
- The University has executed measures that will have a total impact of $1.9 billion from FY’18 to FY’26, with 73% of the target of the Revised Fiscal Plan already met by FY’21
- For FY’21 the University has completed $259.3 million in accumulated annual measures, compared to the Certified Fiscal Plan’s $347.2 million for the fiscal year. Key variances include: (i) loss of student population; (ii) target insufficiency in Federal Research and Investigation Grants; (iii) higher employee compensation targets; (iv) limited implementation in marginal benefit reductions; and (v) additional contribution to the Pension System.
- For FY’22 the Government’s new Administration has a stance to eliminate any further reductions to UPR General Appropriations. The New Government Appropriation Fiscal Resiliency Funds, would be distributed for specific and restricted initiatives, not for any deficiency or refusal to implement any fiscal measure.
- Finally, the UPR Fiscal Plan for 2021 covers all administrative actions, initiatives and pending fiscal and financial matters that provide a firm resolution to the University’s short and long term matters.

- Reduction of $203 million in Government Appropriations

FY'18 Challenges

- Additional reduction of $44 million in Government Appropriations

FY'19 Challenges

- Additional reduction of $86 million in Government Appropriations

FY'19 Achievements

- Submittal of Audited Financial Statements
- Accreditation of all Campuses by MSCHE
- Increase in External Funds

FY'20

- Earthquakes
- COVID-19 Pandemic

FY'20 Achievements

- Conversion of 95% of all programs to Online Courses
- Submittal of Audited Financials
- Development of Distance Learning
- Digitalization

FY'21 Challenges

- COVID-19 Pandemic
- Reduction in Federal Funds Revenue

FY'21 Achievements

- 100% of programs have been converted to Online Courses
- New Budget Model
- Began Tutoring Program with Dept. of Education

Major Challenges Facing the Institution

Government Appropriations Reduction

- Central Government Appropriations were reduced by $333 million, or 40% between FY'17 and FY21
- The Central Government will maintain annual appropriations at ~$560 million through FY'23 and adjusted for annual inflation thereafter

Impact of Natural Disasters and Critical Infrastructure

- Recent natural disasters set the course for UPR's infrastructure transformation
- Disaster relief funding from FEMA totals over $275 million in assigned projects to-date
- Total of 147 projects in different phases currently in pipeline

University's Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic

- Proactive University response to transform 95% of in-person courses to online format within 10 days of initial lockdown
- $210 million in COVID-19 Pandemic Relief Federal Funds directed at institutional expenses and direct student grants

Decline in Student Enrollment

- Trend in Island demographics leading to 5.2% annual decline through FY'23
- UPR continues to grow its market share among the Island's other higher education institutions

Solvency of the Retirement System

- Pension System liabilities are currently 57% unfunded
- UPR is complying with $160 million in actuarially required annual employer contribution

Declining Institutional Reserve Fund

- Dwindling institutional reserves causing UPR to utilize restricted funds for daily operations (reduction in $171 million in cash accounts since FY'17)
- $20 million in annual contributions will replenish this reserve fund

Government Appropriations Reduction

State Support Funding Benchmarking

- Analysis published by the Chronicle of Higher Education, based on data on revenue reported by institutions to the U.S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System for the fiscal years 2002 to 2018, provides a list of over 1,500 Public Colleges' state support indicators. This report shows that the UPR would be the 9th institution (out of over 1,500) with the largest reduction in state support over a ten-year period.
- The analysis published shows that the current Government Appropriations and /or State Support (of approximately 42% in FY'21, compared to 70% in FY'17) would place the UPR under the 50% percentile of the 1,500 institutions being evaluated.
- Additionally, analysis completed by the Pew Charitable Trust, based on data published by the Federal Office of Management and Budget, shows that for FY'17 State Higher Education spending represented 9.8% of total General Funds. Compared to the UPR's 5.6% of total General Fund budget for FY'21.

University's Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic

The Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (Section 18004(b) of the CARES Act) assigned $14.3 billion for higher education institutions to prevent, prepare for and respond to the COVID-19 emergency. Based on full-time student enrollment, the University received of $81.1 million from the Emergency Relief Fund. The UPR will receive a second allocation totaling $128.5 million corresponding to the CRRSAA Act.

Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund - UPR Allocations
Campus	Total Allocation	Minimum Allocation to be Awarded in Financial Aid Grants to Students
Rio Piedras	$44,782,734	$8,436,810
Mayagüez	50,709,017	9,829,063

Utuado	4,206,458	800,180
Total	$209,637,035	$40,553,504

- The CARES Act required that at least 50% (or $40.5 million) of the $81.1 million available for the UPR be restricted towards student grants via the Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students
- Section 3505, of the CARES Act allows an institution of higher education to continue paying students participating in a work-study program for up to one academic year if the student's employer or university closed as a result of the COVID-19 Pandemic
- The CARES Act also provides certain benefits for teachers who have received TEACH grants and/or who have outstanding teacher loans. Grant recipients unable to fulfill or complete their service obligations due to this emergency, shall either be excused or have their service obligations considered complete.

Distance Education Efforts

Due to COVID-19 Pandemic, the UPR decided to cancel all in-person courses and begin a transition to distance learning with online technologies

- In accordance with this new scenario, each campus submitted a work plan for the transition to technology-assisted methods. A support structure was formed to assist faculty and students' needs.
- The Vice Presidency for Professional Programs and Distance Education (“VPPPDE”) has been providing support and direction to the campuses in coordination with the Distance Learning Advisory Board and the Representative Committee for Distance Education, which has members from each campus.
- The VPPPDE created a web portal with the purpose of joining efforts at a systemic level to support this process, the VPPPDE included:
 - Links of interest
 - Management and user guides
 - Recommendations for best practices
 - Technological tools
 - Resources
 - Instructional content
- These tools are aimed at strengthening the process of adapting courses and online technology-assisted methods
- Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic the University adapted its courses to remote instruction with online technologies. This represents more than 11,500 courses.
- Campuses have continued to offer remote courses since the Federal Department of Education granted a waiver for compliance with the applicable regulations to provide distance education
- After consulting with MSCHE representatives and the Board of Postsecondary Institutions, Deans of Academic Affairs have been instructed to make the summer academic offering available with courses adapted using distance education methodology and online technologies.

Decline in Student Enrollment

Student enrollment has remained relatively stable, with an average decrease of -2.26% from FY'13 to FY'21

Historical Fiscal Plan Progress

Since its first submission, the UPR Fiscal Plan has provided financial stability and operational efficiencies while achieving positive transformational changes

- The University is executing measures that will have a total impact of $2.7 billion from FY'19 to FY'26. By the end of FY'21 it expects to complete 73% for the 8-year fiscal period.

Ensuring a Sustainable Future

The University's Government Support Funds have been reduced by over $320 million through FY'21. This has provided less dependency on the Central Government from 72% in FY'17 to 49% in FY'21 while maintaining total receipts relatively constant.

Second Semester Analysis

① 1st to 1st Semester ② 2nd to 1st Semester ③ 1st to 2nd Semester

Projected Student Enrollment Comparison

The UPR assumes an annual average decrease of 5.18% student enrollment for FY'22 & FY'23 versus the FOMB which assumes a 4.6% decrease for student enrollment for FY'22 & FY'23. The UPR & FOMB are aligned for FY'24 – FY'26 student enrollment decrease.

Note: UPR FY'21 Actuals for Student Enrollment

Projected Student Enrollment

The UPR assumes an annual average decrease of 5.18% for student enrollment for FY'22 & FY'23 and a decrease for FY'24 – FY'26 that reflects Puerto Rico's expected population decline

Projected Tuition Costs

UPR has aligned its tuition costs to the Certified Fiscal Plan requirements

Trainings & Seminars Program

The UPR receives $20 million in funds per fiscal year for Trainings & Seminars. As of March 5, 2021 270 programs have been completed 58 for PRDE & 212 for OATRH

- The University has developed collaborations with multiple government agencies (Department of Justice-Property Registry, Permits Management Office, Planning Board and the Department of Education) in order to help them achieve fiscal measures of their own, while simultaneously utilizing Trainings & Seminars funds
- These collaborations had to be stopped due to the COVID19 Pandemic, but will all restart during FY'21 or early FY'22

Note: FY'21 Results as of December 31, 2020

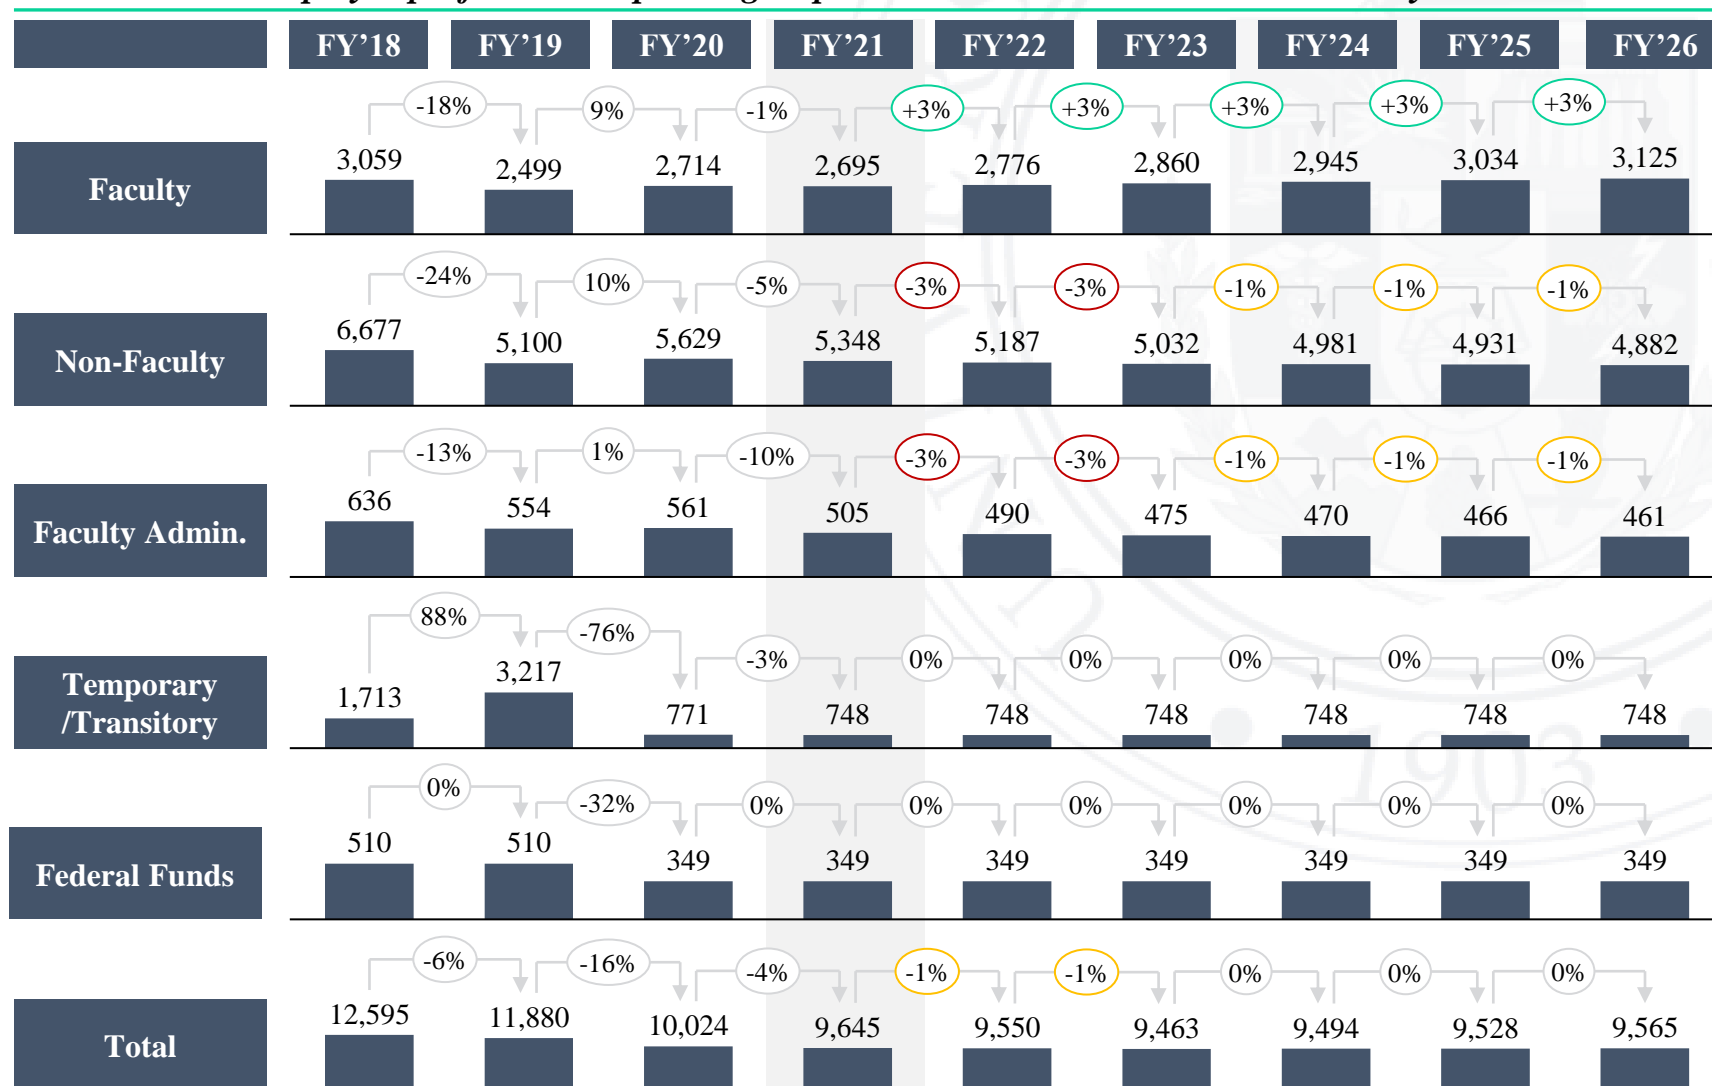

UPR Historical Headcount Comparison

Estimated employee roster for FY'21 is 422 employees or 4.2% less than FY'20

Attrition Analysis

The University has made a detailed analysis of its employee functions. It has developed and divided its employee profiles in 5 separate groups which are used in the Attrition Analysis.

Attrition Measure

The attrition expected for the next five years is similar to the assumptions from the Certified Fiscal Plan

(000's)

Personnel Expense (includes Medical Insurance)

From FY'18-FY'21 the UPR has been able to reduce Personnel expense by $186.4 million

Medical Insurance Program

The University will be aligned with the FOMB Medical Insurance Expense as stated in the UPR Certified Fiscal Plan. It is important to consider that 72% of all UPR employees receiving Medical Insurance have a Pre-Existing Condition.

Employee	Receiving Medical Insurance	Monthly Payment	Total Annual Expense (000's)
Faculty	872	$390	$4,079

Total	7,228	-	$53,121

Administrative Transformation Levers

6 levers are key to the success of UPR's Administrative Transformation. Their focus is to create an efficient, modern, responsible, and integrated model that will help centralize & optimize administrative responsibilities & student services.

Procurement

- Development of a new centralized procurement strategy has commenced
- Central Administration has identified key contracts & categories for additional savings

Process Transformation

- Key processes that have been identified :
 - Medical Clinics
 - Purchases
 - Human resources
 - Dean administrative units

Digitalization

- Technology transformation Committee developed
- New Digital signature policy has been established
- Digital documentation process has begun
- Zero paper policy is being developed

ERP

- Enterprise Resource Planning ("ERP") will upgrade the UPR's information system
- Will be centered around the integration of student services & administrative responsibilities

Administrative Culture

- New administrative culture focused on responsibility which includes retraining employees
- Create development program for UPR employees
- "New management school"

New Budget Model

- New hybrid model for FY'21
- Focused on the principles of an incentive-based approach
- Funds to increase the incentive for student recruitment, retention and graduation rates

Total Infrastructure, Modernization & Resiliency Spending

The annual average projected expense for the University's Infrastructure and Maintenance Program is double the historical annual average spend for this budget line item. In order to successfully execute the extent of this Program, the UPR will sign an interagency agreement with Puerto Rico Infrastructure Financing Authority ("PRIFA") for expanded project management services.

Pension Policy Reform Decision

The UPR proposes a prospective approach to reform the UPR Retirement System (“UPRRS”) that would eliminate the total pension liability, not only the unfunded pension liability portion. In addition, reduces significantly legal risk of changes due to the prospective nature of the proposed Pension Reform. The prospective solution is a partial freeze of the UPRRS.

- The UPRRS will be closed effectively December 31, 2021 to all non-vested participants and new employees after that date. Vested employees in the UPRRS and retirees are not impacted with this prospective change.
- The December 31, 2021 date provides time for an adequate educational process and operational transition of non-vested UPRRS participants to the new defined contribution plan
- The UPR commits to funding the UPRRS following a closed 30-year amortization according to actuarial guidance
- Non-vested and new employees (12% of total population): Non-vested and new participants will participate of a new defined contribution plan starting January 1, 2022. Non-vested employee and new employees would contribute 8.5% of their annual salary to a new defined contribution plan. The UPR would contribute a 4.5% annual matching.
- Vested employees (38% of total population): No impact. Vested employees will continue to participate in the UPRRS following current guidance.
- Retirees (50% of total population): No impact.
- The UPR is allocating $160 million to cover the actuarial required contribution to cover the unfunded pension liability.
- With this reform the unfunded pension liability would be paid in total by 2043 which results in 100% funding status for the partially frozen UPRRS defined benefit pension plan by the same year

Pension Plan Contribution

Note: The UPR Fiscal Plan for 2021 included Contribution to DB Plan as well as a new contribution towards a DC Plan.

Historical Pension Plan Liability

The GASB 67 & 68 Actuarial Report (dated January 20, 2021) presents a dire financial situation of the UPR Retirement System, with approximately $1 billion in additional pension liability

¹: Data obtained for "Actuarial Report as of June 30, 2019" slides from Cavanaugh Macdonald Actuarial Report GASB 67 & GASB 68 reports as of June 30, 2019

Actuarial Reports

Upon the adoption of Statement No. 68 of the Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB)¹ effective FY'15 the UPR modified its accounting method for pensions. The implementation of GASB 68 results in the financial disclosure of the net pension liability of the UPR Pension System, which is based on actuarial studies containing several underlying assumptions that change from time to time.

1: GASB 68 establishes the standards of accounting and financial reporting for defined benefit pensions and defined contribution pensions provided to employees of state and local government employers, through plans that are administered through trusts or equivalent arrangements. GASB 68, however, does not govern neither the funding nor the budgetary standards for any of those plans.

Debt Sustainability Analysis

The UPR has $4395million of outstanding bonds, including $341.4 million of Series P and Q Revenue Bonds and $53.6 million of AFICA Bonds, 2000 Series A. Both the Revenue Bonds and the AFICA Bonds are being paid current principal and interest.

- Discussions with respect to a consensual restructuring of the Revenue Bonds are continuing. Presently, the University has complied with and has made all transfers due under the Letter Agreement, as extended. For FY'21, the University will make transfers to the Trustee totaling $52.3 million. In addition, the Trustee of the University's Revenue Bonds on behalf of the University has paid, as agreed, the scheduled principal and interest payments on its outstanding Series P and Q Bonds.
- The UPR Fiscal Plan for 2021 does not allow for the payment in full of the Revenue and AFICA Bonds. Additionally, unused and/or excess cash reserves have already been used for fiscal plan deficits in the past three fiscal years. Commencing in FY'23, the University would have a limited amount of excess funds for debt service payments.

Emergency Cash Reserve Fund Replenishment

The 30-Year Debt Capacity projections consider the New Government Appropriation Fiscal Resiliency Funds for the Replenishment of an Emergency Cash Reserve Fund. The total amount accumulated in the 30-year period would be $250 million, or 70 days of cash on hand reserves for fixed operating expenses.

Publication of Audited Financial Statements

Since its first Fiscal Plan back in FY'18, the UPR has adhered to more sound financial controls and returned to more timely publication of its Audited Financial Statements

- The UPR has been successful in decreasing the number of days between its financial closing period and its publication of Audited Financials. For the FY'20 Audited Financial Statements the UPR maintained relatively the same number of days as in the FY'19 Audited Financials Publication.
